

About CitySquares

"Local businesses are what make our neighborhoods unique"

CitySquares is the leader in video marketing and advertising solutions for local businesses working to expand their online exposure and generate new prospective customers.

Our vision is that video will be the center of every local business' marketing efforts, so we're working towards this goal by building innovative video applications that deliver the best ways for local businesses to connect with customers.

Our full-service video marketing platform makes it easy and affordable for any small or medium sized business to utilize video to grow their online brand. Our services include Video Creation and Online Distribution, YouTube In-Stream Advertising, Facebook Advertising and Lead Capturing, and our CitySquares Local Business Directory, which is fast becoming the largest video business directory on the web.
